Huntington, W. Va., October 17, 1800.—Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock Mrs. Walter J. Swanson gare birth to triplets. As hour later Mrs. Howard E. Swanson similarly surprised her bushand

The elvemstances are extraordinary. Less than a year ago Dorathy and Parthena Freeman, twin slaters, were the belles of Breeden, a mining town of Southwestern West Virgnia. Living outside of town their happy farm home was the scene of much gayety, and many country beaux offered heart and hand to the beautiful girls. So alike were they that often the lovers became mixed with regard to the object of their devotion. All were turned away until Walter J. and Howard E. Swanson, dashing young timber men, and also twing, came on the scene. They were alike as were the girls.

Within three weeks after the first meeting the happy marriage bells rang out in the village church. They settled on the tuesd acres of the old Freema homestend, and now each father is the happy possessor of three bouncing bables. Walter Swanson declares that his 27 pounds of girls are much more to be desired than Horard's 30 pounds of boys, and says that the only thing he regrets is that the colly thing he regrets is that the colly thing he regrets is that the cae only thing he regrets is that he can't name one of the girls for Bryan, but he has done the best he could un-der the circumstances by calling them Willie, Jennie and Bryana, while his brother Howard, who is the staunchest of staunch Republicans, glories in be-lng the happy father of Hanna, McKln-ley and Teddy.

A great many people have been to all upon the new arrivals, and several and some gifts have been presented to hem. Among the visitors last night were A. B. White, Republican candi-late, and Judge John H. Holt, Demo-Virginia, who are now speaking in this Virginia, who are now speaking in this section. Both of the gentlemen we coughs, Codd, La Grippe, Pheumonia, become much chagrined that neither had been honored in the selections of names for the little Swampans, and offered in Comp, Thooping Cough, Soc and St. no. be a Law pixet Year.

The election bill sarreed apon by the special session of the Legislature will become a law this week, but it will not go into effect this year.

The election next month will be held under the Goebel Law, with some alight changes.

The main features of the new election laware the creation of a Board of Election Commissioners, of two, to be appointed by the Governor, from the two political parties, to hold their offices for one year.

The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall be ex-cention a member of and chairman of the Board. This Board shall perform the country to consist missioners in each country to consist Bev. John G. Huber, pastor of a bayton, C? 'n, congregation of United Brethren, preached to a large congregation at the Methodis church, in Columbia, last Sunday night. His subject was "The Twelve Gates Entering into the Heavenly Home." It was the most interesting discourse delivered in most interesting discourse delivered. Columbia for many moons. His scriptive powers are grand, and in scribing the heavenly home you co almost see the golden gates, stand ajar, and the children of God pass into the New Jerusalem.

in past days, and there are many whose enthusiasm is causing them to be very anxious for the success of W.J. Bryan and Kentucky's honored Governor, J. C. W. Beckham.

The Democrate of Webb's percinct, Russell county, organized a Democratic club at Foot Hill and honored it with the worthy name of the Bryan-Beckham Club. The first meeting was held on Saturday night, October 6, with a membership of 37. Since then, or up to October 20th, the club has grown to 164, and it will, in all probability, reach 255 by our next meeting. We believe that we will have the honor of earolling more members for the Democratic ticks et han any other club in the constry. We are glad to say that we heartily endorse both State and National platforms. We are beginning to get our eyes open as to what Republican misrule is doing, and has done, not only in the State but in the nation. We have that the William Jennings Bryan will be elected to preside over the affairs of the nation and that J. C. W. Beckham will be the chief majistrate of the State.

Mr. Bryan has succeeded, by means of his answer to Assistant Secretary Metikicjohn on the Sulu treaty, in drawing from the Republican press and from Mr. Metikicjohn himself, the unquilited admission that the intrreenth amendment to the Constitution applies to the Sulu Islands. These authorities point to the fact that this amendment declares that neither siserery nor involuntary servitude "shall exist within the United States or any proof that the President could not have confirmed the slavery provision of the Bates treaty.

We are glad the wording We are giad the wording of the amendment has finally forced titled apon the Republican consciousness. In this become harmonic of the consent by Democrats. But now that our Republican contemporaries are willing to recognize the existence of the thirteenth amendment, let me ask them to think a little harder. The amendment does not say that the President shall not make a treaty recognizing survery.

That makes the case complete. The McKiniey Administration is convicted out of the mouths of its own friends of violating a solemn prohibition put into the Constitution by the Republican
